Brian C. Castrucci, DrPH

President & Chief Executive Officer
de Beaumont Foundation

We're thrilled to continue our 2024-2025 21PHirst Signature Series with Dr. Brian Castrucci! Hosted in collaboration with the Center for Public Health Workforce Development, the series will explore how we can prepare, train, and educate an agile public health workforce that is prepared for post-pandemic challenges and advances.

Dr. Castrucci will discuss the state of public health following the pandemic and the major public health challenges that presently exist. He will outline practical steps that all public health serving agencies must consider to build a more inclusive, effective, and valued public health system.
