

RUTGERS HEALTH
Robert Wood Johnson
Medical School

The 2025 Annual George and Lily Boxer Memorial Lecture

“Structure, Function, and Inhibition of the HIV Capsid”

Featuring:

Wesley I. Sundquist, PhD

Samuels Professor and Chair
Department of Biochemistry
University of Utah
Spencer Fox Eccles School of Medicine

TIME100: The Most Influential People of 2025
2025 Warren Alpert Foundation Prize
2024 Louisa Gross Horwitz Prize

Dr. Sundquist's groundbreaking work led to the development of Gilead's Yeztugo® (Lenacapavir), the first and only FDA-approved HIV PrEP option for six months of protection.

OCT. 8, 2025
4 P.M.

Main Lecture Hall
675 Hoes Lane W
Piscataway

Reception to follow in Great Hall

For more information, contact

Dajah Young

✉ dmy44@rwjms.rutgers.edu

Hosted by the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Robert Wood Johnson Medical School
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Since 1969, the Boxer Lecture has brought 47 scientific pioneers including 11 Nobel Laureates to Rutgers