

RSVP BY February 5, 2026 for in-person attendance

VOICES FROM THE FIELD:

ENGAGING MULTILINGUAL COMMUNITIES IN RESEARCH

Join us for the third seminar in a series on Multilingual Research Methods.

This session will focus on culturally and linguistically appropriate methods for community engaged research. Panel speakers will discuss important factors to consider when working with research participants with a preferred language other than English.

PANEL SPEAKERS

Karen D'Alonzo, PhD, APN
Associate Professor,
School of Nursing

Sunanda Guar, MD,
Professor of Pediatrics, Director of Adult and
Pediatric Clinical Research Center, Director SATHI

MODERATED BY

Jennifer Hemler, PhD,
Assistant Professor
Department of Family Medicine and
Community Health

Daniel Lima, MSW,
Research Coordinator,
Department of Pediatrics

Paloma Moscardó-Vallés,
Senior Lecturer in Spanish and Portuguese,
Princeton University

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2026*9:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. |  303 George St, New Brunswick, NJ 08901*Virtual participation available*Light refreshments at 9:00 a.m.