

Rutgers Changing the Conversation on Obesity in Primary Care

This four part series equips clinicians and primary care teams with practical, evidence-based tools to strengthen obesity care. Each session blends clinical content with real-world improvement strategies focused on:

Reducing weight bias and stigma in obesity care

Screening, diagnosis, and assessment

Treatment and referrals

Quality in practice and complicated cases

Program Information

ECHO Launching
October 8th, 2026

Select Thursdays
7:30 - 8:30 AM

[Click Here to Register
Now!](#)

Benefits of Participation

Complimentary ADA Membership to journal Diabetes, Obesity, and Cardiometabolic CARE® for individuals who meet attendance and survey criteria:

- Serve as the site lead for your organization
- Attend 3 out of 4 sessions
- Complete 75% of the surveys

Exclusive access to the DiabetesPro® Member Forum

Certificate of Completion signed by the ADA's Chief Quality Officer