

NJACTS Fellow Program (TL1) Application

You are receiving this because you submitted a letter of intent to apply for the 2021 NJACTS fellowship program cycle.

Once you save the application, you can access it as many times as needed before submission by using the RETURN code provided in the pop-up box the first time you save.

You must re-use the same code each time or the application will not be saved for you.

Should you encounter any technical issues or have questions about the submission, form or program, please contact one of the program staff listed on our website or email us at NJACTS.Fellowship@gsbs.rutgers.edu.

PLEASE COMPLETE AND SUBMIT THE APPLICATION BY MAY 27, 2021 5:00pm.

The information contained in this application, your letter of intent, and reference letters are the sole means of evaluation for the Committee.

After formal evaluation by the reviewer panel, the most promising candidates will be contacted and invited to interview with members of the NJACTS Fellowship (TL1) Selection Committee. Final selections will be based upon the initial application as well as written evaluations from each interviewing faculty member and the program's Executive Committee.

Please ensure that your completed application does not include any personally identifiable information such as Social Security numbers.

You may periodically save your work and complete your application in more than one session. PLEASE WRITE DOWN THE RETURN CODE and use it to access your saved application.

Each time you save to leave the application (for application preparation as well as at submission), you will be able to download a pdf for your records.

If your institution requires review of the application prior to submission, you can print the application to pdf prior to submission.

If you misplace your code or have other questions about the application, please email us at: NJACTS.Fellowship@gsbs.rutgers.edu

PLEASE DO NOT START MORE THAN ONE APPLICATION.
